A quote from St. John Paul II

Every generation of Americans needs to know that freedom consists not in doing what we like, but in having the right to do what we ought.

Prayer for Our New Bishop

O God, Eternal Shepherd, who guide Your flock with unfailing care, in Your fatherly love, grant Your Church of Memphis in Tennessee a shepherd who will walk in Your ways and whose watchful care will bring us Your blessing. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Oración por nuestro nuevo Obispo

Oh Dios, Pastor Eterno, quien guía a su rebaño con cuidado inagotable, en tu amor paternal, concede a tu iglesia de Memphis en Tennessee un Pastor que irá en tus caminos y cuyo cuidado vigilante nos traerá tu bendición. A través de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

Gospel for Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him. [Luke 5:1-11]

The 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal

(formerly the Bishop's Annual Appeal) is underway. You should receive in the mail a letter from your pastor seeking your support of the Appeal. Enclosed will be a personalized commitment card. Please prayerfully consider your support of the ministries of the Diocese of Memphis. Commitment Weekend will be February 23-24. Please bring your personalized commitment card to Mass on that weekend as we join together to support our Catholic Church.
