Thank You! ; Muchas Gracias!

To everyone who attends the Latin Mass ...

If you attend the 8:30 AM Latin Mass on Sundays, and if you park in the church parking lot, may I ask a favor of you? If you intend to remain at the church past 10:10 AM, e. g., to visit or play basketball in the gymnasium, etc., would you please move your car out of the parking lot and onto the street. This will allow more empty parking spaces nearer to the church doors for elderly parishioners who attend the 10:30 AM Mass and cannot walk long distances. Thank you.

1st Friday & 1st Saturday Masses this week

1st Friday, September 6th 12:00 PM - Latin

1st Saturday, September 7th 9:00 AM - Latin

The rosary will be recited before these Masses and confessions will be available.

Feast of St. Teresa of Calcutta

Join our Missionaries of Charity, their lay associates, and friends on Thursday, September 5th at 6 pm at The Little Flower for a Mass in honor of St. Teresa of Calcutta. Following the Mass, there will be a small reception in Leppert Hall. Join us as we celebrate one of the greatest figures of the 20th century and a great jewel in the Church's crown of saints!

Gospel for 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully. He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." [Luke 14:1, 7-14]

Second Collection for The Catholic University of America

Today's special second collection is for The Catholic University of America, the national university of the Catholic Church. In 1887 the University was founded by the bishops of this country and chartered by Pope Leo XII. Nearly one third of all of the U.S. bishops, archbishops, and Cardinals in our country are alumni, along with over 12,000 priests and religious from around the world, including some from your diocese. Through its 12 schools and 23 research centers located in the nation's capital, every year the University provides an education grounded in the Catholic intellectual tradition to almost 7,000 students. Your investment will enable the University to continue to support the Church and to advance its work of preparing the next generation of leadership, both religious and lay, of our Church and nation. Thank you for your generosity.
